A Sense Of Place Painters

Dear Artist, Most of us paint first and title last. Sometimes, about the middle, a title just pops out of the ether. And a few of us get a title in our heads and figure out the work to go with it. Particularly with whimsical and didactic art, this last system is worth considering. TheRead More

Titles of paintings - The Painters Keys

Action painting, sometimes called "gestural abstraction", is a style of painting in which paint is spontaneously dribbled, splashed or smeared onto the canvas, rather than being carefully applied. The resulting work often emphasizes the physical act of painting itself as an essential aspect of the finished work or concern of its artist.

One of Cubism's brightest stars was Fernand Leger (1881-1955). After a spell as an architect's apprentice and a brief foray into the Academy's school, Leger discovered Cezanne at the latter's huge retrospective at the Salon d'Automne, and then met Braque and Picasso in 1910. Under their influence he ...

Non-traditional elements. Modern artists have extended the practice of painting considerably to include, as one example, collage, which began with Cubism and is not painting in the strict sense. Some modern painters incorporate different materials such as sand, cement, straw or wood for their texture. Examples of this are the works of Jean Dubuffet and Anselm Kiefer.

History is a word of multiple meanings, all related to the past. When used as the name of a field of study, history traditionally refers to the study and interpretation of the written record of past human activity, people, societies, and civilizations leading up to the present day. More broadly, as explained in the 1911 Encyclopædia Britannica, "history in the wider sense is all that has ...
