The Final Call

Early life and education. Kuby was born in Cleveland, Ohio. His parents divorced when he was five years old, after which Kuby lived with his mother. At 13, he joined the Jewish Defense League under the influence of his father, who was a follower of Meir David Kahane. As a teenager he emigrated to Israel, but returned to the U.S. after being disillusioned by "anti-Arab racism".

20 years ago literally nobody questioned vaccines. Today you have god knows how many anti-vaxxers (they keep appearing everywhere), flat earthers have non-ironically returned, and the religion that blows themselves up regardless of sect (sunni, shiite, wahabiist, etc) killing hundreds per month is called the Religion of Peace.

The problem is their deteriorating economic situation which in my view can be attributed to a policy that rejects any kind of preparation in their schools for the future. Charedi students are not taught any secular studies beyond 8 th grade. Nor are any of the students given enough time to do so on their own – even if they wanted to.

Democrats are just doubling down on defending anti-Semitism – their latest gambit is to claim that our side is deliberately misconstruing statements, but that is just a dodge. The Democrats are caught in quite a bind: they can't reject anti-Semitism because a substantial number of their supporters are overt anti-Semites (I'd guess it is around 20% of their base), but they also can't ...
