In ancient Jewish literature, such as the Ethics of the Fathers and the Talmud, there are many references to Sodom. The phrase "middat Sdom" was used. It may be translated as "the way the people of Sodom thought". It meant a lack of charity and hospitality towards others; ignoring the needs of the poor, etc.

Warning - Do Not Engage With Demons in the 2nd Heaven Unless Directly Authorized by the Lord. In the area of spiritual warfare, one very controversial issue you will come across is whether or not we, as born-again believers, have the power and authority to try and attempt to engage with demons who are in the 2nd heaven, who are in what the Bible calls the "heavenly places."

Luke, spot-on advice. Absolutely spot-on. Easier said than done, of course — but what part of this business isn't? Alden, I can imagine that there are atheists who think that their beliefs have eternal implications — I'm thinking of the new age, quasi-mystical, only-on-paper-really sort of atheist.

Pastors and lead worshipers are never boxed in to using theologically defective or musically dated songs, if they don't want to. If you want to be theologically and biblically faithful as a lead worshiper and feed your flock with the richest of biblical food and the most engaging of tunes, there is a wealth of old and new to choose from so that you never have to sing something theologically ...

christian symbols - fish, ichthus, cross and crucifix. An acrostic is an "arrangement of words in which the first letter of each line ordinarily combines with others to form a word or words or the alphabet." 1The Apostles were often referred to as "fishers of men". Followers of Christianity were called Pisciculi; the root of this Latin word is "fish".
