In the English language, capitalization is used for names by which a god is known, including 'God'. Consequently, the capitalized form of god is not used for multiple gods or when used to refer to the generic idea of a deity. The English word God and its counterparts in other languages are normally used for any and all conceptions and, in spite of significant differences between religions, the ...

God in Christianity is the eternal being who created and preserves all things. Christians believe God to be both transcendent (wholly independent of, and removed from, the material universe) and immanent (involved in the world). Christian teachings of the immanence and involvement of God and his love for humanity exclude the belief that God is of the same substance as the created universe but ...

One of the most common images in Western and Eastern religions alike is of God as a parent and of human beings as God's children. Billions pray to God as their parent, invoke the brotherhood and sisterhood of all people to promote peace, and reach out to the weary and troubled out of deep conviction that each of God's children has great worth.

I have felt a sense of urgency concerning the word "BRAVE." When the angel of the Lord told Joshua, "Only be strong and courageous," he was instructing him to be brave (Joshua 1:18).God is telling you: "Bravery is a characteristic you will need to develop in this season. Sometimes it will look like relentless faith as you are challenged to do greater feats than you've ever done before.

The Bible says that death came as the result of man's sin. Evolution says that death has always been a part of nature. Can both be true? Obviously not. If the fossil record represents millions of years of earth history, there must have been millions of years of death, struggle, and disease before man appeared, contrary to what Genesis teaches. ...
