My topic for this chapter is "Marriage lived for the glory of God." The decisive word in that topic is the word "for." "Marriage lived for the glory of God." The topic is not: "The glory of God for the living of marriage." And not: "Marriage lived by the glory of God." But: "Marriage lived for the glory of God.". This little word means that there is an order of priority.

The Surpassing Goal: Marriage Lived for the Glory of God ...

I think there are three inner conditions described which lead in turn to three outward demeanors. "Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other."

Complementarians hold to a hierarchical structure between husband and wife. They believe men and women have different gender-specific roles that allow each to complement the other, hence the designation "Complementarians". The Complementarian view of marriage holds that while the husband and wife are of equal worth before God, husbands and wives are given different functions and ...
