The median score of a modern Miller Analogies Test (MAT®) score is 400, on a scale of 200 to 600. A score of 500-600 would be extremely rare, so anything above 400 is considered above average. A good MAT® test score is used by graduate schools to determine the worthiness of applicants. Also, certain intellectual societies may use a good MAT® test score in order to determine acceptance of
