Learning any foreign language requires a lot of memorization, and unfortunately this course is no different. One thing that I find helpful is to mix in Spanish words in my everyday English, so long as the situation can handle it (i.e. don't start calling the businesspeople in your board meeting ustedes next time you get together). So try and memorize the new words for this lesson, and how to ...

(An easy way to remember it is that you use está with definite articles (i.e., "the") and hay with indefinite articles (i.e., "a", "an"). Check out this lesson on definite and indefinite articles if you need to brush up.). Locations (and prepositions) you might hear. Once you've got your está and your hay situation sorted, here are some of the responses you might hear in Spanish.
