Community Reviews. The History of Love is not a book written conventionally; it is an amalgamation of conventional themes, yes, but there is nothing conventional about its narration. I studied Sociology for three years, and one of the techniques, I remember my professor telling me, to study Sociology is Verstehen.

The History of Love. In the end, Leo and Alma come together in a surprising way --- and by means of a most unexpected catalyst. With its exploration of chance and coincidence and its multi-layered plot, Nicole Krauss's THE HISTORY OF LOVE will remind many of Paul Auster's novels and stories. Krauss's prose is remarkably versatile,...

Gursky's gift. He also wrote a great novel in Poland, The History of Love, but entrusted it to a friend who later told him that it was lost. So the Holocaust allowed him to survive, but without the core of himself, and it seems that all we see is the husk of the man, withered and waiting for death.

The History of Pit Bulls The history of the Pit Bull can be traced back to the early 1800's in the United Kingdom. Pit Bulls were originally bred from Old English Bulldogs (these dogs are similar in appearance to today's American Bulldog) who gained their popularity on the British Isles in a cruel blood sport known as "bull baiting".
