Tony Chan's Water Club is the "upscale" Downtown favorite with "romantic waterfront" views where "delicious Peking duck" and other dishes are "fresh as home cooking". Though the fare is probably more complex than what you'd whip up at your condo stove, you watch the chefs through the "kitchen's floor-to-ceiling windows" or at the sushi bar by the entrance, you might ...

Restaurants & catering While public eateries existed in Ancient Rome and Sung Dynasty China, restaurants (we know them today), are generally credited to 18th century France. The genesis is quite interesting and not at all what most people expect. Did you know the word restaurant is derived from the French word restaurer which means to restore? The first French restaurants [pre-revolution] were ...
